

Tapish Panwar
Assistant Professor
Faculty – Services Marketing and Marketing Management
Rizvi Institute of Management Studies & Research

Tapish Panwar has more than eight years of experience in domestic as well as international markets across multiple sectors like Sales & Marketing, IT Consulting and Social Development. He has been associated with organizations like Tata Trusts, Maersk Line, Tata Motors and Cognizant in past in functional as well as leadership roles in areas like Sales, MarCom, Strategy, Project Management and Consulting.

Tapish completed his Master in Business Administration from Faculty of Management Studies, Delhi which is the Management Faculty of University of Delhi with Marketing as majors. He also holds an Engineering degree from RGPV University, Bhopal in Electronics and Telecommunication.

He started his career in IT and worked as a Team Lead and Onsite Coordinator managing projects for Novartis Pharma from client site in Basel, Switzerland. He has also worked in Heilbronn, Germany while working in a project with T-Systems Enterprises through T-System, India. At Tata Motors, he worked in various departments like Marketing Communication, Spare Parts sales and Organization Strategy while working with channel partners, agencies and vendors, and customers in the automotive segment. He also had a brief stint at Maersk Line as Key Account Manager for Consumer Durables segment at the organization which was a national role.

In his last organization, Tata Trusts, Tapish was deputed as a Consultant to the Commissioner & Principal Secretary, Rural Development Department, Gujarat for the Swachh Bharat Mission (Gramin). As a consultant, he was responsible for providing strategic and operational support to the Principal Secretary for Swachh Bharat Mission (G) and was also responsible to support in project management with major emphasis on monitoring and coordination.

He qualified NET twice, in 2013 and again in 2014 and also qualified the JRF criterion in 2014 In Management stream.